New Delhi: The Indian armed forces are pinned out in careful scrutiny of the nine cross-border terror camps down to their last man and woman and are now conducting the precision strikes against them. Under Operation Shikhar, Director General of Military Operations (DMO) Lt Gen Ravi Chhat

"You are now familiar with the brutality and the dastardly manner in which the terrorists have been estimated at Pulgam on April 32. When you combine these 10 camps with the 100 camps in the PRC which the nation witnessed, with numerous other terrorist strikes on our borders, the impact on our civilian population is enormous. We know that the time has arrived to make yet another
